CASE NO. 3:08-CV-119

AMENDED DECLARATION OF RICHARD N. LAMINACK

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1746, Richard N. Laminack declares as follows:

1. My name is Richard N. Laminack. I am over eighteen (18) years of age, have never been convicted of a felony or crime involving moral turpitude, am of sound mind, and am competent to make this Amended Declaration. I have personal knowledge of the statements contained in this Amended Declaration and each of them is true and correct.
2. I am an attorney-at-law, licensed to practice law in the State of Texas since 1987. My license to practice law has never been suspended nor revoked and I am currently a member in good standing with the State Bar of Texas.
3. I am a partner at Laminack, Pirtle & Martines, LLP and am the attorney in charge for Wellogix, Inc. ("Wellogix") in the above-referenced case.
4. I am admitted to practice in the Southern District of Texas and have regularly practiced law in Texas for many years.
5. I graduated from the Lamar University in 1983 with a Bachelor of Science degree, and obtained my law degree from South Texas College of Law in 1987, with honors. I have personally handled and tried numerous cases covering a wide variety of issues.
6. I am personally familiar with the reasonable attorneys' fees and related litigation costs and expenses in the Texas market, including in the Southern District of Texas. I am familiar with the usual and customary rates charged by attorneys serving in contingent matters and in non-contingent fee matters and that have been accepted in cases involving, inter alia, theft and misappropriation of trade secrets. I am personally familiar with the hourly rates charged by other litigation counsel of similar skill, experience, and training as Wellogix's counsel and who regularly practice in the Southern District of Texas.
7. I am also familiar with the factors that may be considered in determining the reasonableness of attorneys' fees, as listed in Rule 1.04 of the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct, State Bar Rules Art. X § 9, and as set forth in Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714, 717-719 (5th Cir. 1974). I am personally familiar with the reasonable fees, hours, and other billing matters customarily and regularly charged by litigation counsel of similar skill, experience, and training as Wellogix's counsel that regularly practice in the Southern District of Texas, for cases involving theft and misappropriation of trade secrets.

8. This Amended Declaration is submitted in support of Wellogix's previously filed application for attorneys' fees in this case and any amendments and supplements to that motion.
9. I and my firm were retained in this case by Wellogix to prosecute its claims against the defendant, Accenture, Inc. As the attorney in charge in this matter, I and other attorneys at my firm, as well as non-attorney paralegal staff persons, have been responsible for the original filing, the discovery, the pre-trial procedure, the motion practice, the trial, the post-trial activities and appeals to the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit and the United State Supreme Court.
10. Laminack, Pirtle & Martines, LLP agreed to represent Wellogix on a contingent fee basis because Wellogix did not have the ability to pay attorney fees on an hourly basis nor did it have the resources to pay reasonable and necessary litigation expenses. Pursuant to a written contract, Laminack, Pirtle & Martines, LLP agreed to represent Wellogix for 40% of any recovery obtained from Accenture. In the event of an appeal, the fee goes to 45%. Under the terms of the contract, Laminack, Pirtle & Martines, LLP was to advance all costs associated with prosecuting the case against Accenture. In addition to the contingency fee, Laminack, Pirtle & Martines, LLP is to be repaid litigation expenses. Should there be no recovery, Wellogix would owe Laminack, Pirtle & Martines, LLP nothing.
11. Attached as Exhibit A to this Amended Declaration is a true and correct copy of the timesheet prepared from contemporaneous daily time records regularly prepared and maintained by Laminack, Pirtle & Martines, LLP, containing the time and task records and reflecting the activities of the lawyers and non-lawyer paralegals of my firm on this case. This statement correctly and accurately sets forth the legal services rendered by the lawyers (Richard N. Laminack, Thomas W. Pirtle, and Buffy K. Martines) and non-lawyer paralegal (Chuck Hunger) of Laminack, Pirtle & Martines, LLP to Wellogix in this matter. This billing statement has been redacted to the extent necessary to protect against the disclosure of information subject to the attorney-client and work-product privileges. In addition, litigation expenses incurred during this litigation are detailed in Exhibit "B."
12. Considering the attorneys' fees customarily charged in the Southern District of Texas by practitioners of comparable skill, training, and experience as Wellogix's counsel, in cases involving theft and misappropriation of trade secrets, and the Johnson factors referenced above, the hourly rates charged, the time incurred by the lawyers and non-lawyer staff of Laminack, Pirtle & Martines, LLP, and the tasks performed as reflected in Exhibit A, are typical of the usual and customary rates charged for attorneys' services in similar matters, are consistent with the hourly rates charged by practitioners of comparable experience in cases involving theft and misappropriation of trade secrets filed in the Southern District of Texas, and were reasonable and necessary tasks in this matter.
13. Whenever practical, the services of legal assistants or paralegals have been used. With regard to the fees incurred for tasks performed by non-lawyer paralegal staff of Laminack, Pirtle & Martines, LLP in this matter, I have reviewed the attached Exhibit A and have confirmed that the time spent and the tasks performed were not clerical matters for which no fees may be recovered. See Gill Savings Ass'n v. Int'l Supply Co., 759

S.W.2d 697, 705 (Tex. App.—Dallas 1988, writ denied). The paralegal from my firm who assisted in rendering legal services and handling this matter, Chuck Hunger, is qualified through education, training, and work experience to perform substantive legal work traditionally performed by an attorney. The tasks they performed were supervised by me or another attorney and were performed at my direction or at the direction of another attorney, and were reasonable and necessary for this matter.

14. The overwhelming majority of the time spent and tasks performed by the lawyers and non-lawyer staff of Laminack, Pirtle & Martines, LLP was for matters related to Wellogix's claims for theft of trade secrets or was directly relevant to these statutory claims. However, in accordance with Tony Gullo Motors I, L.P. v. Chapa, 212 S.W.3d 299, 311 (Tex. 2006), I have reviewed the attached Exhibit A. During my line by line review, I deducted hours that pertained (1) solely to other defendants involved in this matter; (2) solely to Wellogix' common law misappropriation claims; and (3) to extraneous matters.
15. As of June 9, 2014, Wellogix has incurred reasonable and necessary legal fees for the services from Laminack, Pirtle & Martines, LLP totaling $1,465,925.00, which is based on a total amount of 2984.75 hours. These totals take into consideration the hours deducted for items 14(1)-14(3) above.
16. As of June 9, 2014, Wellogix has incurred reasonable and necessary litigation expenses totaling $1,875,214.73. Again, I conducted a line by line analysis of the litigation expenses and deducted any and all expenses that did not apply to theft of trade secrets claim.
17. In my opinion, and after considering the factors set forth in Rule 1.04 of the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct, State Bar Rules Art. X § 9, and in Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714, 717-719 (5th Cir. 1974), the hereinabove described fees incurred by Wellogix were reasonable and necessary for the prosecution of its claims in this matter. These legal fees reflect those reasonable and necessary services rendered to Wellogix through June 9, 2014.

I declare under penalty of perjury and under the laws of the United States, that the foregoing is true and correct.

EXECUTED this 25th day of June, 2014.
